

Mobile SalesPerson© takes full advantage of new and unique features which provide ease-of-use through a more natural interface that is just like using pen and paper to process orders. As a result , Mobile SalesPerson© can help salespeople better manage their daily customer visits, track POS items, take orders on the move and access information to help them up sell and cross sell with little or no learning curve— all in real time with the customer.

Key Benefits

Mobile Market Intelligence
Process Cycle Time
Increased Sales
Improved Service
Improved Coordination
Increased Field Time
Key Features

Critical Data: Instant access to contract pricing and Item status. Complete access to customer's data that improves decision-making.

Scheduling: Route schedule organize a sale person's daily customer visit priority.

Portability: The Mobile SalesPerson© interface enables automatic updates to Order Entry completely eliminating paper work. The 2 way data flow is like carrying Accpac 5.3 / 5.4 Order entry on a PDA.

Security: Device level security is embedded in Mobile SalesPerson© to ensure only authorized sales people have access to confidential company data and order processing capability.

Fast/Easy: With an easy to use interface and full screen, field representatives are never more than few clicks away from necessary information.

Customer-centric: All customer information and Item details are instantly available any time, anywhere.

Reports: Printing of Sales Orders can be accomplished through hand held printers.

For more information visit Computers International